FRAMEWORK AND POLICY ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT NO 4 OF 2013

AIR LIQUIDE (PTY) LTD (the “Company”) is a private company incorporated and registered in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa. The Company supplies industrial, medical and specialty gases and related services.

1. INTRODUCTION

The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, (“POPIA/The Act”) and the Regulations promulgated thereunder give effect to the right to privacy provided by section 14 of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 1996.

The Act and Regulations require the Information Officer of the responsible person as defined under the Act to develop, implement, monitor and maintain a compliance framework, (Regulation 4 of Regulations published under GG number 42110 dated 14 December 2018 (“POPI Regulations”).

The Company has developed this policy in order to comply with the aforesaid requirements and to further demonstrate commitment to the spirit of the Act in respecting the rights of Data Subjects to have their Personal Information protected as set out in the Act.

Forms 1, 2 and 4 of the POPI Regulations are attached to this Policy.

This Policy aligns with, and flows from the Air Liquide Group Privacy policy DS GP03.

4. PRINCIPLES SET BY THE AIRE LIQUIDE GROUP POLICY

Air Liquide has adopted 10 golden rules when the personal information of any person is processed:

1. Personal data must be collected for specific, explicit and legitimate purpose
2. Ensure that there is a legal ground for the processing of personal data
3. Ensure that only adequate, relevant and limited personal data is collected and retained for a limited period of time
4. Be transparent to individuals on how their personal data will be used
5. Ensure that the processing of sensitive personal data is allowed
6. Uphold rights of individuals
7. Ensure that individuals are able to object to direct marketing communications
8. Prevent solely automated individual decision-making, including profiling
9. Ensure security and confidentiality of personal data
10. Implement appropriate measures for transfers of personal data outside of Air Liquide

5. THE COMPANY REQUIREMENTS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION: CONSENT OR NOTIFICATION

All Processing of Personal Information must be done:

- 5.1. Only if relevant to Air Liquide activity; and
 - 5.1.1. After a written and signed consent in a form developed and approved form by the Company, has been received from the Data Subject, or
 - 5.1.2. Where there is a legal requirement to disclose Personal Information for example to the scheme itself, to authorities, operators, etc., the Data Subject must still be notified of such disclosure, unless the Applicable Law provides otherwise; or
- 5.2. For the purposes of entering into and for implementing a contract; or
- 5.3. When required by law enforcement, regulatory processes and such purposes as allowed by law.

6. NOTIFICATIONS

- 6.1. The Company will inform all persons whose information is being processed, of that fact.
- 6.2. This is done via the Company's Terms and Conditions, on specific consents to disclosure, and, where bulk-mailers or communications are sent out, with a statement relating to the rights of the Data Subject, attached thereto.
- 6.3. The rights of Data Subjects are as follows:

AL PTY POPI POLICY

- 6.3.1. Notification when personal information is being collected, the type of information collected, for what purpose, whether the information is to be supplied voluntarily or is collected mandatory, and whether the information would be transferred to a third country and the protections afforded there;
- 6.3.2. Notified if there has been unlawful access or acquisition of his/her/its personal information;
- 6.3.3. Request a record of your Personal Information;
- 6.3.4. Request the correction, deletion and/or destruction of your Personal Information;
- 6.3.5. Object to the processing of your Personal Information;
- 6.3.6. Exercise the right to withdraw the consent to processing, if voluntarily given;

¹ which include but are not limited to policies on Digital Solutions and Cloud Infrastructure, Digital Security, Digital Protection, Computer Management, Passwords, Internet and Network Access, Anti Virus, Digital Access Management, etc.

AL PTY POPI POLICY

- 12.2. Electronic information on shared drives operate on access control and permissions, accidental access must be reported to the Information Officer and IT immediately.
- 12.3. No information, including personal information, may be downloaded from shared drives onto device hard drives or any external device.
- 12.4. Physical records are kept in accordance with the Company's Document Retention Policy.
- 12.5. There are security cameras by the site entrance areas, notices are put up to this effect and staff contracts include such surveillance as part of the conditions of employment. All such recordings are stored off-site and will only be accessed in cases of alleged breaches of processing, including unlawful access or destruction of personal information.
- 12.6. A few of our operational sites and office buildings are accessed through a biometrics system for employees, as well as a sign-in system with security personnel and boom gate for visitors, which is guarded and locked at night. The security company acts as an Operator and an Operator agreement is in place, ensuring that no personal information provided is stored for longer than necessary and is permanently destroyed after its use. Frequent visitor information is stored indefinitely at the security company in full compliance with the provisions of the POPI Act, or until a contract or assignment comes to an end. The instruction for destruction of such information to the security company is provided by the Group Security Manager.
- 12.7. All persons responsible for sign-in lists, forms and registers, irrespective of the premises or unit where those are used, will ensure that:
- 12.7.1. the information of previous entries are not visible to a current entrant, by keeping a blank sheet clipped over such information, or, where possible, redesigning access forms so that previous entrants' information is not visible.
 - 12.7.2. the form / list / register is never left unattended, and is, in such cases, locked safely before being left at a station / desk.
 - 12.7.3. visitors / attendees, when asking, are informed that their personal information is collected for security / presence / attendance record purposes, and will only be used for those purposes, and be archived and destroyed after a stipulated period, unless it forms part of an investigation.
 - 12.7.4. the collection of this information protects both the company and visitors, as it also ensures the security of visitors and that, should an incident (e.g. a fire) occur, all employees and visitors can be tracked.
- 12.8. Sign-in lists, forms and registers are kept in accordance with the period stipulated in the Company's Document Retention Policy.

AL PTY POPI POLICY

- 12.9. Where a visitor returns the visitor permit, the permit is filed and stored in a secured cupboard and after three (3) years is destroyed by way of shredding. An Operator Agreements is in place with the third party who renders the services of collecting and disposing of the shredded Personal Information.
- 12.10. Records that have a regulatory impact, i.e. for products, equipment or processes subject to the accreditation of SAHPRA and International Organization for Standardization, or fall under the Hazardous Substances Control Act, Conformity Assessment, Calibration and Good Laboratory Practice Act, etc are processed, retained and destroyed in accordance with the requirements of regulators and under the oversight of the Industrial Regulatory Compliance and Risk Department
- 12.11. Regular verification that the safeguards in place are effectively implemented and continually updated in response to any new risks or deficiencies;
- 12.12. Notification in writing to the affected Data Subjects and reporting to the Information Regulator, should the Personal Information relating to the Data Subject be compromised or should there be a suspicion that the Personal Information is compromised. Notification may have to be made to the Information Regulator. All security and access breaches or suspected or potential breaches of personal information must be reported to the Information Regulator or his/her designated Deputy immediately after such breach or potential; breach becomes known.

13. TRANSBORDER DATA TRANSFER

- 13.1. All Air Liquide entities worldwide which have signed the "IntraGroup Agreement on Binding Corporate Rules". These rules are recognized in section 72 of the POPI Act, and are binding. It ensures that where transborder data transfer takes place, such processing is in line with principles at par with, or stricter than local law (i.e. the POPI Act). Consideration must be had where the information of citizens of the EU's information is processed.
- 13.2. The Company uses servers and systems that are based in South Africa for some of the personal information that it processes. However, as the Company is part of a global group of companies (the "Group"), certain employee personal information is stored on a server that is hosted outside of South Africa's borders. These entities are complying with rules that are similar to the POPI Act. Performance records can be accessed through the Group's Talent Management System. Such information can only be accessed by local human resource personnel so authorised, and by overseas duly authorised central HR Administrators for purposes of technical support, Key Performance Indicators consolidation, and maintenance. Excluded from these records that can be accessed by overseas designated employees of the Company, are Goals details, Performance records, career development wishes, development plans, transcripts, Curriculum Vitae.

AL PTY POPI POLICY

14. RETENTION, STORAGE AND DESTRUCTION

- 14.1. All Personal Information in the possession of the Company must be stored, retained and destroyed in accordance with the legislation applicable to the specific information and according to the Company Document Retention and Destruction Policy.
- 14.2. According to POPIA, personal Information shall not be retained longer than required to fulfil the purpose for the Processing or longer than required by Applicable Legislation.
- 14.3. Once the purpose for Processing or the retention period has lapsed, or provided under Applicable Legislation expires, the Personal Information must be destroyed and/or deleted and/or returned to the Data Subject, as may be required by the Applicable Law and in a manner that complies with such Applicable Law.
- 14.4. Retention periods, and the destruction of personal information, must be specified in consents and notifications.

15. PURPOSE AND USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

When Processing Personal Information as part of any activity, the Responsible Party must:

- 15.1. Identify the nature and extent to which one will deal with (a) Personal Information and (b) Special Personal Information (i.e. measure the data fields through which information it is collecting to assess whether it is relevant, necessary and not excessive), and then amend its processing accordingly.
- 15.2. Identify the types of processing that will take place (e.g. collection, collation, manipulation, dissemination and destruction, or collection, recording and storage, etc.).
- 15.3. Identify the purpose for which the specific processing is undertaken, clearly indicating whether such purpose is permitted by a law (e.g. invoicing requiring a name on the invoice and an email address to which it is to be sent).
- 15.4. Confirm that consent has been obtained from Data Subjects, which consent shall constitute a contract between The Company and the Data Subject and shall describe:
 - 15.4.1. the purpose of the Processing or further processing of the Personal Information;
 - 15.4.2. the type of Processing of the Personal Information;
 - 15.4.3. timelines related to the Processing;
 - 15.4.4. the destruction or storage of the personal information; and
 - 15.4.5. the security assurances and measures undertaken by The Company to protect the data and Personal Information.

AL PTY POPI POLICY
